Have questions about the 2020 Census? Join us at the Kansas City Health Department at 2400 Troost Avenue.

You'll learn the importance of 100-percent participation in the Census, of getting a complete count of all who live in our city and region.

Funding for many federal programs and congressional representation hinge on population.

Find out how easy and confidential it is to respond, whether you do it online, over the phone, on paper, or in person. You can take care of your Census responsibility by using one of the Kansas City Public Library's laptop computers to respond online.
